

2024 SAFETY OF OUR CITIES CONFERENCE

Innovation and Collaboration: Moving Forward Together.

Second Annual Safety of Our Cities Conference

Hosted by Peel Regional Police

Submit a Workshop Proposal

Please join us at the Safety of Our Cities Conference (SOCC) from September 16-18, 2024 in Mississauga, Ontario, Canada as we unpack the evolution of policing and what more can be done to restore balance and safety in our communities. The conference will bring together law enforcement and multi-sector partners to engage, listen and share progressive, innovative and inclusive approaches to strengthen the safety and well-being of our communities.

The 2024 SOCC is accepting workshop proposals from a wide range of sectors including law enforcement professionals, public health, human services, academia, government, and private industry. Proposals are welcomed from local, provincial, national and international presenters on the following topics:

1. Alternative service delivery models including collaborative and integrated approaches between police and human service organizations
2. Getting upstream – proactive strategies to reduce crime, victimization and other harms
3. Unlocking data, analytics and evidence-based practices to strengthen safety and well-being
4. Recruiting for the future of public safety
5. Building high performing organizations through culture, leadership and/or wellness
6. Enhancing public safety through technology and innovation
7. Culturally responsive, equitable and inclusive approaches to serving diverse communities
8. Addressing hate – best practices, collaborative approaches and navigating the global context
9. Emergent trends in law enforcement – what does the future of public safety look like?

Workshop proposals will be accepted by email at until May 30, 2024.

Please submit your proposal via the conference website at <https://www.safetycitiesconference.ca>

If you have questions, please email us at SafetyofOurCities@peelpolice.ca. If your proposal is not selected for a workshop, you may be invited to participate in a panel discussion.
